

I oppose the proposed change by the Consumer Bankers Association to weaken our DNC list regulations. What makes them so special? An elderly neighbor recently asked me to assist her in having her telephone number placed on the DNC list. Her complaint dealt with the BANKS calling her all the time. Please fight them. Do not weaken the law.